Your project on a famous CT person will be due on Friday, May 23, 2008. You will be responsible for note taking and a power point presentation. You may read a book about your person, or obtain information from the internet. On the day of your oral presentation, you will dress like your character and talk about your life and the significant contribution you made to society. You may bring in any props that will add to the presentation. We will be inviting your parents to join us the day of your presentation.

The power point presentation will include this information:

1. Childhood - birth date and place, family, places they lived
2. Education - schools and colleges attended
3. Occupation - career, important jobs held
4. Achievements - what are they most remembered for and why?
5. Character traits - What are they? Tell a time when the trait showed.
6. Why did you select this particular person?

You will be graded on four items for a final grade:

1. Power Point presentation
2. Costume (Dress as the character)
3. Notes
4. Oral Presentation

Your oral presentation will be evaluated on these items:

1. Voice: words pronounced correctly and with good articulation and control.
2. Nonverbal: good posture and helpful facial expressions and gestures.
3. Overall effectiveness: Showed concern for doing a good job and achieved a good, finished performance.

Please sign below and return by Monday, May 5, 2008.
